Narrative

On Monday, May 6, 2013 at approximately 1825 hrs, Central advised of a possible fare dispute on-board LIRR train #2076, car #7663. Assigned officers responded to track #8 at Jamaica Station where the train was due to platform. Upon the train's arrival into the station, the LIRR train conductor (Mancini, John) informed the officers that as he was in the process of collecting fares and inspecting commutation tickets, an adult female passenger displayed what appeared to be a photo LIRR transportation pass to him. He stated that when she displayed the pass, she flashed it to him very quickly so that he could barely view it and she immediately tucked it away in her purse. He advised that he asked her several times to please display the pass again so that he could properly inspect it and she adamantly refused to do so stating "You already saw it. I showed it to you before and I ain't showing it to you again".

The female passenger who was later identified by a valid New York State Driver License as (Garris, Tamiko) was asked several times by the officers on scene to please display the LIRR transportation pass that she previously displayed to the LIRR train conductor (Mancini, John), but she refused to do so. The LIRR transportation manager (Gardiner, Benjamin) also requested to inspect the pass and she again adamantly refused to display it.

At this time she became irate and began to shout at an exceedingly loud tone towards the train conductor and the officers on scene which caused the other passengers on the peak rush hour train to stop and take notice of her actions and behavior while appearing surprised and alarmed.

After several requests, the female passenger (Garris, Tamiko) de-trained onto platform "D" at Jamaica Station. While on the platform level, she was asked to refrain from shouting and speaking over the officers on scene, but refused to do so. The LIRR transportation pass was again requested and once again she refused to display the pass to the officers on scene or the LIRR transportation manager (Gardiner, Benjamin).

The female subject was taken into Police custody and was rear handcuffed for her own safety and the safety of the officers on scene.

Subsequently, the female subject (Garris, Tamiko) was escorted to MTA Police District # 3 Base for arrest processing.

While in the Police district, a NYSPIN / E-Justice check was conducted through the communications unit with negative results. No DNA sample required from E-Justice.

The defendant (Garris, Tamiko) was charged with the following:

1 count of New York State Penal Law section (165.15) subdivision (3) "Theft of services".

1 count of New York State Penal Law section (240.20) subdivision (2) "Disorderly conduct - unreasonable noise".
